IMPERIAL COUNTY AIRPORT

Feb. 23.—The Zenith scout plane, making its attempt to break the world's flight record, was seen in flight in northern Imperial county shortly after 11 o'clock today after the take-off.

Plots planned to stay about north of here most of the day. The plane was to keep away from populated sections. No refueling was to be attempted during the last 24 hours.

ON at 7:15:30 a. m. the Albatross took off at 11:15:30 today. The three pilots were Alvin K. Peterson, F. Rocheville and Jack

VER INFORMS BORAH THAT DOES NOT FAVOR REPEAL OF PROHIBITION AMENDMENT

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—Secretary of Commerce Hoover, came to the Republican presidential nomination, informed Senator Borah that he does not favor repeal of the 18th amendment. The senator made in reply to Borah's "dry questionnaire," sent to him and other presidential candidates.

PER FANNY SAYS:

"Upon my return to Washington I have taken up your letter," Hoover wrote. "I feel that the discussion of public questions by reply to questionnaires is likely to be unsatisfactory and oft-times leads to confusion rather than clarity."

"Replies to the scores of such inquiries on many questions are impossible."

"Out of my regard for your known sincerity and your interest in the essential question, I will, however, say again that I do not favor the repeal of the 18th amendment."

"I stand, of course, for the efficient, vigorous and sincere enforcement of the laws enacted there under. Whoever is chosen president has under oath the solemn duty to pursue this course."

"Our country deliberately has undertaken a great social and economic experiment, noble in motive and far reaching in purpose. It must be worked out completely."

House Adopts $274,500,000 Navy Program

Committee Will Introduce Bill for 15 Cruisers, One Plane Carrier

BY THOMAS L. STOKES
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—A naval building program of 15 cruisers and one aircraft carrier, to cost $274,500,000, was adopted today by the house naval affairs committee and will be embodied in a bill to be introduced by Chairman Butler.

The program calls for the cruisers, of 10,000 tons each, to be laid down in three years and completed in six. The aircraft carrier of 13,800 tons is to be laid down in two years.

The committee adopted a provision, presented by Representative Hale, Republican, New Hampshire, authorizing the president to spend this proposed construction in whole or in part if an agreement for further limitation is reached at a future disarmament conference.

The cost of the proposed committee program, $274,500,000, is only for the vessels and does not include personnel and necessary airplanes.

It compared with a basic cost of approximately $800,000,000 for the program originally requested by President Coolidge.

The committee voted down proposals for submarine warfare explaining that the United States has more submarine tonnage now than any other nation.

Coast Guard Wanted 71 Ships
President Coolidge wanted 71 ships, including 25 cruisers, 32 submarines, nine destroyers leaders and five aircraft carriers. He also desired authority to suspend the program on the mere calling of another disarmament conference.

The national council for prevention of war made public today protests by two house members against excessive naval expenditures.

Representative Adkins, Republican, Illinois, said large naval expenditures would threaten farm relief.

Representative Buttress, Republican, North Dakota, urged that congress go slow "and not permit itself to be rushed heading into a program which is unnecessary and burdensome." Both Adkins and Buttress favor "adequate" naval preparedness.

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 23.—Action for divorce from Lloyd Hamilton, screen comedian, will be instituted shortly by Irene Dalton, actress. It was reported here today. They have separated.

Court Decision On Reapportionment Plan Step Nearer

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 23.—First steps toward throwing California's legislative reapportionment dispute into the supreme court were taken at the state capitol today when sworn testimony was given by deputies of the secretary of state in the office of the attorney general.

The new system of reapportionment, which would give the large cities of California control of the state assembly and the rural districts control of the state senate, has been attacked by a referendum petition filed by Los Angeles, San Francisco and Alameda county citizens.

Farm bureau interests retaliated by seeking an injunction in Sacramento superior court against the secretary of state's placing the referendum question on the ballot.

ATTACK ON EUROPE PRESS IS INDORSED

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—Secretary of State Kellogg today indorsed U. S. Ambassador Myron T. Herrick's statement in a Paris speech that the European press had been unfair to the United States in its reports of the Havana conference.

Foreign writers attempted to make a clear case of imperialism against the United States, Kellogg believes. In this effort, it was suggested they had emphasized every allegedly disruptive tendency shown at the conference, especially the idea that Latin-American nations had gone to Havana to fight United States policies.

LOCKHART ESCAPES DEATH IN CRASH; BRITON WILL TRY TO BETTER MARK

(By United Press)
DAYTONA BEACH, Fla., Feb. 23.—American attempts to rest the motor car speed title from Great Britain have ended for this year through the untimely accident that sent Frank Lockhart and his Stutz Blackhawk catapulting into the sea—and chief interest today centered in Capt. Malcolm Campbell's attempt to break his own record.

Sunday Captain Campbell sent his big Napier Bluebird over the Ormond-Daytona course at a speed of almost 207 miles an hour, to break the record of H. O. D. Seagrave, also an Englishman.

Today the British driver again will test the full power of his Napier in an attempt to attain an average speed of 210 miles an hour.

Lockhart's beautifully constructed little Stutz racer today was a wreck while the 23-year-old driver was in a hospital recovering from painful injuries.

Whirling along the course yesterday at a speed estimated well in excess of 200 miles an hour, Lockhart's machine suddenly plunged sideways, overturned and

M'MILLAN CASE MAY GO TO JURY TODAY

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 23.—The defense in the trial of Dr. Charles M'Millan, charged with the "sack" murder of Mrs. Amelia Appleby, wealthy widow of a millionaire Chicago inventor, rested today.

The aged physician, accused of murdering the woman for her money and throwing her body in a ditch near San Fernando, took the stand as the final defense witness, but failed even to deny the slaying.

No rebuttal testimony was offered and final arguments began at once. It is expected that the case will be submitted to the jury late today or early tomorrow.

Testimony Change Results In Clash Of Julian Counsel

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 23.—E. L. Wright, state witness in the Julian overlease trial, changed his testimony again today and counsel for the 10 men charged with conspiracy engaged in a bitter protest.

The former transfer clerk testified that stock certificates were signed in blank by officers of the corporation in Los Angeles and were then sent on to New York, where the amount of the stock was written in.

Wright previously testified that 100,000 shares of stock were issued in Los Angeles to the Lewis Oil company and then forwarded to the eastern office. Later he declared the certificates were issued in New York.

Lindy Believed Co-Designer Of New Plane

DETROIT, Mich., Feb. 23.—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh today assumed the role of inventor. With his financial backers, Lindbergh flew from Salt Lake field, Mount Clemens, to Detroit, to discuss with Ford engineers the details of his invention.

ASK DEPORTATION OF CHALIAPIN JR.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 23.—Local immigration officials have asked the deportation of Feodor Chaliapin Jr., son of the noted baritone, it was learned here today.

The youth was found working in a Hollywood studio, although his five-month permit in this country had expired. He is now under $500 bond, awaiting action by Secretary of Labor Davis.

'CERTAIN PROMISES MADE TO ME' BY NELSON AND MOZLEY, GAINES CHARGES FROM STAND

Albert Dewey Gaines today again provided the sensation in the trial of the Rev. Phillip Goodwin, charged with the murder of J. J. Patterson, Los Angeles broker, after refusing once more to testify.

Gaines already has been convicted of taking part in the killing of Patterson, in 1926.

The Folsom prisoner declared today that "certain promises were made to me regarding this case" by A. P. Nelson, former district attorney; C. N. Mozley, former deputy district attorney, and Ed McClellan, former chief criminal deputy sheriff.

Gaines was at once reminded by Superior Judge E. J. Marks that in his former testimony he had said that no promises had been made to him. He asked Gaines if he wished to continue. The former Utah cowboy thought the matter over and said he had decided he had said enough. He did not reveal the nature of the asserted promises.

First On Stand

He was first to take the stand this morning. The jury was dismissed while he made his second statement. He recalled that when he was sentenced by Superior Judge James L. Allen, he had stated that, if a second trial ever was granted, he might have a different story to tell. But he again refused to tell what that story was.

DENOUNCED BY COURT

Reasons for Refusing to Answer Quiz Committee Regarded as 'Frivolous'

By HERBERT LITTLE
United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—Senate arrest of Col. Robert W. Stewart, oil king and defiant Teapot Dome witness, was upheld by the courts today.

Justice Jennings Bailey, of the District of Columbia supreme court, discharged a writ of habeas corpus, under which the chairman of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana obtained temporary freedom from the senate officials seeking to arrest him for further questioning and perhaps summary commitment to jail.

Appeal Is Noted

Stewart's lawyers noted an appeal to the district court of appeals. The oil king was released on $5000 bail.

Justice Bailey dismissed the writ and remanded Stewart to the custody of the senate sergeant-at-arms in less than a half minute.

Stewart has 60 days in which to perfect the appeal. Unless it is expedited, the appeal probably will not be argued until next fall.

David Barry, sergeant-at-arms, advised the senate at noon of Justice Bailey's decision. He said he had taken Stewart immediately into custody and then released him when Stewart noted an appeal.

No action was taken by the senate.

Stewart was arrested by senate officials nearly three weeks ago when he refused to tell the senate Teapot Dome committee all he knew concerning the disposition of

HIGH APPEARS TODAY ON ASSAULT CHARGE

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 23.—William Nigh, well-known film director, is scheduled to be arraigned here today on charges of assault resulting from a battle with Edward Usher Jr., football star, over the affections of a dancer.

Nigh is alleged to have attacked Usher as the latter was escorting Jean Jarvis, dancer, to her home.

OAKLAND FIRE DEATH TO BE INVESTIGATED

OAKLAND, Cal., Feb. 23.—Discovered lying in a pool of blood in front of her home, Mrs. Catherine Lind, 59, was held by police today while they investigated the death of her husband, Oscar, whose charred body was found in a bed in the house.

Mrs. Lind insisted her husband met death while attempting to light a kitchen fire with gasoline, but admitted they had quarreled and exchanged blows earlier in the night.

When the husband's clothing caught fire as he was lighting a stove, she said, she dragged him into the bedroom, tried to smother the fire and finally brought water.

"Then I ran to call help but fell and could not go on further," she said. Officers declared there was an odor of gasoline in the bedroom but none in the kitchen.

Prominent Valley Persons, Several Women Named In Warrants

(By United Press)

INDEPENDENCE, Calif., Feb. 23.—A score or more of prominent Owens valley residents, including several women, were expected to be added to the list of those under arrest today for the dynamite attacks on the Los Angeles aqueduct.

The first of the warrants charging conspiracy were served last night, resulting in the arrests of Maj. C. T. Watson, Fred Nathan, Harry Peston, W. L. Smith, Frank Spaulding and Walter Young. All are well-known ranchers and business men.

Climax to Bitter Feud
The arrests furnished the climax to the bitter water war between the city of Los Angeles and valley ranchers, who claimed they never had been compensated for losses caused by the building of the huge water system.

The warrants issued by Justice of the Peace Harry A. Pierce charged the men with participating in attempts, over a period of three years, to destroy the aqueduct which supplies water to more than a million are secreted in safety deposit box No. 3004, of the Equitable Trust company, New York.

Bond Sale Related
Later, John Mooney, of Blair and company, a New York brokerage house, revealed that the Hyva company—personal holding corporation of Harry F. Sinclair, indicted oil man—had sold some of the bond profits in 1924.

The exact amount was not revealed, but Mooney said the Continental bonds were in a lot of $1,000,000 in bonds sold by his concern for the Hyva company.

Walsh indicated that of the $1,000,000 lot, about $250,000 were indicated to be Continental bonds.

He also found $16,000 of the bonds were among those later held by James E. O'Neill, missing oil man, who shared in the Continental deal.

The evidence was procured by checking the serial numbers of the Continental bonds with those sold by the Hyva corporation. Mooney identified some of the numbers read him as being those of bonds he sold for the Sinclair company.

Hyva Books Asked
Harold Kenwell, assistant treasurer of the Hyva corporation, then was called to produce books of the company.

Walsh believed he may have found even more of the bonds when Kenwell testified that the Hyva did not collect interest on a large number of Liberty 3-1-2 per cent bonds. All the $3,080,000 profits of the oil deal were converted into 3-1-2 per cent Liberty.

In June, 1925, there was $539,000 in interest yet uncollected, Kenwell said.

Blackmer got $750,000 of the Continental Trading company bonds, Schuyler told the senate Teapot Dome committee.

Schuyler said that Blackmer told him in Montreal, in July, 1923, that he got that amount out of the mysterious deal of oil men in 1921.

From the same bond profits Harry Sinclair, oil man, gave $233,000 to former Secretary of Interior Fall and $75,000 to the Republican national committee.

"I asked Blackmer if any of the profits of the Continental Trading company were used in a political way or in any way to help Sinclair get the Teapot Dome lease," Schuyler said. "He said he had absolutely no knowledge that they were."

Feared Civil Suit

Schuyler said he told Blackmer he probably was liable to a civil suit from the Standard Oil Company of Indiana for his part in the deal. He said Blackmer also thought he was liable and that therefore he had fled to Europe when process servers attempted to get him to testify at the Teapot Dome civil suit.

Blackmer agreed to let Schuyler have the bonds so that legally they would pass out of his possession, Schuyler said.

At that time they were in a safety deposit box of a New York bank in the joint names of George E. Holmes, George Gordon Battle and Schuyler, the attorney added.

Says He Deposited Bonds

"Later I took the bonds at Blackmer's request and deposited them at the Equitable Trust company and they are there now," he said.

"There are $763,000 of the bonds there. I have the serial numbers."

I will let any member of the committee inspect them."

Schuyler said Blackmer, now in Europe, had authorized him to tell his story to the committee today. He said he advised Blackmer to let him make a statement even though it was bound to result in much litigation over the bonds and perhaps great monetary loss.

"I had nothing to do with the activities of the Continental Trading company and had no personal interest in it," Schuyler said.

Saw Blackmer in Montreal

"At Blackmer's request I went to Montreal in July, 1923, to talk to Blackmer. He said he wanted to consult me for professional advice about Liberty bonds of the Continental Trading company."

"I asked Blackmer whether to his knowledge the Continental Trading company ever had any dealings with any public official of the United States; whether that company ever had any interest in the so-called Teapot lease; whether that company had been used as an agency or instrumentality to induce the granting of the Teapot lease; and generally whether any funds of or bonds purchased by that company had been used for any unlawful purpose."

"Blackmer answered in the most unequivocal manner that he had no such knowledge."

"I believed him then and have had no subsequent reason to doubt the honesty or good faith of his answer."

Made Public Statement

"I also asked Blackmer why he had not made a public statement of his position and why he had not testified. He answered that he had made a public statement in reply to certain letters issued by the court in Wyoming; that he had been advised that he was under no legal duty to appear as a witness; that he preferred not to appear as a volunteer; that his testimony would expose his private affairs and tend to involve him in litigation."

"Blackmer did not name and I did not ask him to name others who might have shared in the profits of the Continental Trading company."

Payment For Services

Schuyler said Blackmer had felt the $750,000 he took was payment for services he rendered in the Continental transaction. He did not say to whom these services were rendered.

Senator Walsh, of Montana, brought out that interest coupons of the bonds had not been cashed and that Blackmer had not said whom he represented in the Continental deal.

Schuyler's testimony brought the traced total of Continental profits to $1,919,600 and left $1,160,400 yet to be traced.

The second failure was said by the pilots to have been the result of the Albatross getting into a hot air pocket. The craft had been up 27 hours and 16 minutes when forced to land near Salton sea last Sunday.

Stay Away From Sea

"This time we shall continue our cruising to sections of the valley other than that above Salton sea," Rocherville said today. "The air currents above that locality, which is 280 feet below sea level, will not trap us again."

He declared the ship had been gone over thoroughly and was in excellent condition.

the Continental Trading company's mysterious $3,080,000 in Liberty bonds profits.

He obtained his freedom on the temporary writ which was vacated today.

Justice Bailey filed a short opinion, in which he denounced as "frivolous" Stewart's reasons for refusing to testify fully concerning the disposition of the bonds.

Stewart attended the session and received the court's judgment apparently without emotion.

Swore To Tell Truth

Justice Bailey's opinion pointed out that Stewart swore to tell the senate committee "the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth," but then refused to tell of his knowledge of the bonds.

The justice pointed out that, according to Stewart's previous testimony, his testimony on this point would not have affected his private affairs.

The justice also pointed out that Stewart did not question the scope of the inquiry, but answered fully to all questions until they touched on the Continental bonds.

"In my opinion the grounds upon which the petitioner refused to testify were frivolous and without legal basis and his attachment was justified," the opinion concluded.

Part Truth Misleading

Justice Bailey's opinion pointed out that Stewart "voluntarily testified in part, but refused to tell the whole truth and a part truth may be as misleading as a falsehood."

It was Stewart's duty to answer fully questions if the inquiry was pertinent and his refusal could have been treated as an act of contempt of the senate, the opinion pointed out.

Replying to Stewart's contention that he had answered all questions of public interest put by the committee and that the disputed questions sought to go into private affairs, the opinion read:

"It may be assumed that the senate had in mind the possibility of the need of further legislation."

He was on the right side of the druggist, firing at Oliver. Hunt, however, was standing directly facing the druggist, also firing at the police officer. It was testified.

Toms was shot from the front, the bullet entering his chest, just below the left shoulder.

Attorney A. Gray Gilmer, representing Hunt, failed to shake Oliver's testimony and concluded his examination with only a few questions.

Chief Deputy District Attorney L. W. Blodgett had asked Gaines if he had testified at the former trial. He agreed that he had.

"Did you tell the truth at that time?"

Wood objected at once to the question and it was not answered. "Did you come to Los Angeles at the request of Goodwin?" Another objection to this query was overruled. Gaines refused to answer. He was given another opportunity to reply to questions asked on Tuesday and refused.

Judge Marks declared that he still was in contempt of court.

Undertaker Testified

J. E. Seale, Anaheim undertaker, was placed on the stand by Blodgett once more and, over repeated opposition of the defense counsel, Wood and O. A. Jacobs, recounted his part in caring for the body of Patterson after its discovery.

Before the hearing commenced, the testimony on Tuesday of Ruth Walser, former sweetheart of Patterson, and C. W. Bucklin, who claimed to have known him on the stock exchange, again was discussed with the court by the attorneys for each side. It was agreed that the statements in which articles on Patterson's person were identified should be admitted. That regarding the Julian stock certificates, which it is averred, were removed from the corpse by Goodwin and Gaines, was not admitted, according to report.

This evidence was contested by the defense at the time of its presentation.

Goodwin's counsel confirmed to-day reports that the Moncton branch of the Canadian Legion, British Empire Service league, which is supporting the fight to save the priest, had offered further financial assistance.

The report refers to Goodwin as a Canadian war veteran. It declares that more than $5000 has been spent in the veteran's defense by Canadian organizations, but that a further $2500 is required.

The defense argued today that the corpus delicti had not yet been established in the trial and the testimony of Seale was introduced by Blodgett for the purpose of establishing it.

TWO ARRESTED ON TRAFFIC CHARGES

Charged with driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor, Arthur C. West, 28, hotel clerk of Venice, was to be given a hearing before Justice of the Peace John Landell, today.

He was arrested by State Traffic Officer Joe Clever yesterday after he had been "sizz-zagging" his machine from one side of the road to the other, according to the officer.

Clifford Mathews Wilson, 29, first lieutenant in the army from San Francisco, was arrested at the same time and a drunk charge lodged against him. He also is scheduled to appear before Judge Landell today, it was said.

ARRESTED WHEN HIS CARS HITS ANOTHER

After the machine he was said to have been driving, crashed with another machine at the intersection of the San Diego highway and Newport Road, Tustin, at 6 o'clock last night, William Stewart Angell, 63, Route No. 7, Tustin, was arrested by Ed French, under sheriff, and lodged in the county jail on a charge of driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor.

The car which the Angell machine is said to have struck was occupied by three sailors, returning to their base at San Diego. No one was reported injured in the accident.

Angell will be given a hearing before Justice of the Peace Kenneth Morrison today.

CITY COUNCIL HOLDS SPECIAL MEET FRIDAY

The special meeting of the city council at 7:30 p. m., tomorrow, is one of great importance, for it is expected the city solons will initiate plans that will provide the city with its first unit in what eventually may be a complete water system under gravity pressure.

The councilmen have decided that something must be done at once to improve the system, and tomorrow evening will receive bids for a steel tank to be erected at an elevation of approximately 25 feet. The tank will have capacity for 1,000,000 gallons. It will be located near the Lincoln school, on property the board of education dedicated to the city for water development purposes. A good producing well at one time was on the property.

It is estimated the tank will cost $50,000 and that $30,000 additional will have to be expended in re-vamping a portion of the system in the northwest part to take care of requirements of the big container. Twenty-inch main lines will have to be installed and other lines of small size added to complete loops to get water to the tank and to re-distribute from the tank.

According to E. B. Collier, city manager, the city should have at least $150,000, in addition to that to be expended for the contemplated tank and other improvements, to modernize the system and reduce the cost of production and distribution. He pointed out that pumping by steam is a rather expensive process, and expressed the opinion that it is only a matter of time when the steam plant at first and Flower will have to be abandoned.

The city manager, however, made the declaration that the city should be taking steps to the development of a water plant in the Santa Ana river and the institution of a full gravity system. This program would require a great deal of money. The council, it is known, recognizes the need of such a system and is 100 per cent for the program, but the members express doubt as to the voters of the city approving a bond issue of sufficient size to put over such a big program.

The councilmen are confronted with the fact that voters a few years ago defeated a proposition for acquiring water bearing lands in the West Orange district near the Chapman street bridge, despite the fact that there was, and still is, urgent need for development of this type.

LAWYER FAILS AS AN AID TO THIS CLIENT

Jack Pike, Los Angeles, charged with sale of liquor, was a busy man today. He still does not know just what happened to his attorney, but he will have six months in the county jail in which to cogitate on the problem.

Pike came to the courthouse this morning and met his counsel, F. H. Bowers, of Watts, he stated. Bowers, so Pike mournfully recalled, told him his trial had been continued, and then left for the north.

This statement, however, Pike was unable to verify. For the case was called and there was Deputy District Attorney Sam Collins ready to proceed. Superior Judge Homer G. Ames was ready. No continuance had been arranged for.

The defendant contemplated the situation with a jaundiced eye and asked for time. He was given an hour in which to locate his counsel, or provide another lawyer.

Pike was somewhat dry and stopped on his way out to take a drink. Fountains are provided in the courthouse for this purpose. He went his way and returned before the hour was up. But when he came before the court, he entered a plea of guilty, waived time for pronouncement of judgment, took his sentence and retired to the county jail, where he is ruefully contemplating his plight.

DEPICTS FIRST PRESIDENT AS FIRST REALTOR

George Washington was pictured by Ole Hanson, founder of San Clemente, in an address at the meeting of the Santa Ana Kiwanis club, yesterday, as the first realtor and the first farmer to discover the value of rotating crops.

And Hanson made a declaration that generally accepted pictures showing Washington with a soft, pleasant face are not true likenesses. His face was tough and rawboned, the speaker said, in commenting on the fact that he had seen original photos of the "Father of his country."

Pointing to circumstances of his life and his character as to honesty and integrity, Hanson commented on historical facts influenced by Washington and others that have made the United States the greatest of nations.

Turning from tributes to the man whose 156th birthday anniversary was observed yesterday, the successful promoter of Orange county's newest city, recounted the industrial activities in the New England states, with the manufacturing activities largely centered at points where the raw material is not produced.

"New England has nothing but brains and honesty," he said, in pointing out that the big enterprises were founded by men from the old puritan stock, and that the plant had built a reputation for honest products, with material for the finished products being produced in various portions of the United States.

Land Attractions

Reciting that it was Lincoln who gave this country the homestead law, Hanson said land always has been a great attraction—an attraction that brought men and women here from all nations to join in the upbuilding of this empire. With borders continuing to come to this land of equal opportunities for all, restricted immigration was only a natural result, he said. In his opinion, restricted immigration should be carried a step further by the United States selecting the men and women they want and then distributing them to different portions of the United States according to their training and activities in their native country. For instance, if dairymen are needed, he would select persons familiar with this pursuit and upon arrival here he would force them to go into a dairying section instead of locating in a city or attempting to engage in some other kind of work.

Pointing out that white people on the Pacific Coast have gone as far west as it is possible for them to go, the successful booster and builder of cities, predicted rapid increase in population and development in California, and particularly Southern California.

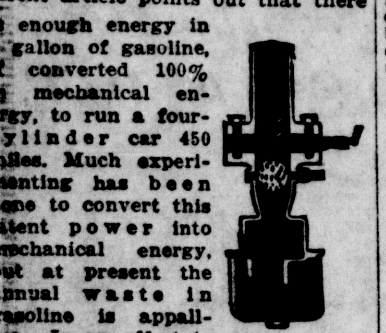

See Increase

Asserting that in the past seven years more people have moved into an area within a radius of 75 miles of Capistrano than in other similar areas in the United States, Hanson declared his belief that Orange county will increase in population at the rate of 20 per cent a year if people who want to come here are given the opportunity to do so—and water, he pointed out, is what he meant by opportunity.

"One person will locate for every 50 gallons of water that is developed along the Orange county shore line, and the quantity of water we can develop in Orange county is the only limit to our population growth and development," Hanson said in concluding his interesting talk. He also made a plea for Orange county residents to spend money made in Orange county in the county.

450 MILES ON A GALLON OF GAS

The president of the General Motors Research Corporation in a recent article points out that there is enough energy in a gallon of gasoline, if converted 100 per cent, to run a four-cylinder car 450 miles. Much experimenting has been done to convert this latent power into mechanical energy, but at present the annual waste in gasoline is appalling. In an effort to conserve gasoline and to increase motor efficiency, Mr. Oliver, noted automotive engineer, has perfected an invention that slashes gas costs to the minimum. He is launching a campaign to equip every car with this wonderful invention, and as he is now appointing agents, is willing to send a sample for trial. For full particulars write Mr. Oliver today in care of The Whirlwind Mfg. Co., 999-225 N. Third St., Milwaukee, Wisc.—Adv.

man, and he added interest by referring to the fact that yesterday's meeting marked the seventh anniversary of the founding of the local club. Past presidents of the club present were introduced, and O. A. Haley, first president, and E. F. Westcott, organizer of the club, made brief talks. Haley reciting that his first information of the existence of such an organization came to him on a visit of the Orange County Automobile Trades association to Catalina Island, at a time when the Kiwanis club of Los Angeles was there on a week-end party.

CATS OR MOCKINGBIRDS, WHICH?

Editor Register: Some of the few remaining mockingbirds which at one time were so plentiful in Southern California, are venturing to return from their winter exodus to make their nests and rear their young, and charm with their sweet song the bird lovers of our city.

While we welcome, and rejoice at their coming, we are filled with apprehension for their safety in this cat-congested community. Our gardens and arbors which were once melodious with the song of birds, whose beautiful forms were seen flitting about among the flowers and vines, building their nests and feeding their young, are silent now. The alley cat's discordant yowls under our windows at night are heard where the sweet songs of mockingbirds used to charm to sleep, and bring peaceful dreams to pain-weary shut-ins.

The first day of February a well-remembered voice was heard in our garden, pouring forth joyous notes of melody, and all day long, and in the night the song of rapture was heard. In the morning the singer perched on a chimney top and poured forth his bird-soul in rapturous notes filling the blocks around with their delicious charm. In the afternoon was silence. The sweet song was hushed; the returned songster had fallen a victim to the merciless claws and teeth of the stealthy cat. In the days following others of the travelers returned but their voices were heard but a day and they, too, met the fate of others. The law in this state for the protection of birds does not protect from cats. They are permitted to prow around day and night, upsetting garbage cans, snooping in pantries and kitchens where a door has been forgotten or left unfastened, securely, killing the neighbor's young chickens, watching a chance to kill the pet canary, and making a nuisance of themselves generally without having one redeeming feature of usefulness except as flea carriers, and ringworm starters on young children who are permitted to handle and play with them.

If people must keep cats to run at large they should be compelled to put bells on them to protect the birds as is done in Central Park, New York. As for their usefulness to catch mice they are a failure as one little ten-cent mouse trap will catch more mice than a dozen bird-killing cats.

A BIRD LOVER.

A Child Doesn't Laugh and Play if Constipated

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour.

If coated, or your child is restless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, has a cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Fig Syrup" then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation, poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. ROSE SOCIETY MEETING WILL BE ON FRIDAY

All lovers of the rose are urged to attend the meeting on Friday, Feb. 24, at 7:30 p. m. in the lobby of the Y. M. C. A. for the purpose of organizing a Santa Ana chapter of the American Rose society. The promotion committee, which was appointed at the last meeting, has met and will be ready to give its report. The only qualification for membership, in the society, is love for the rose and a desire to know more about it.

"Rose growing is a source of pleasure, relaxation, and health. It nourishes the body, soul and spirit. If you would divert your mind from the routine tasks and problems of regular work, join the Santa Ana Rose Society and learn how to grow roses," declares W. S. Kellogg, chairman of the meeting.

"We want to make Santa Ana 'The Rose City of the Southwest.' Our climate is ideal for growing roses," said Kellogg. "We have in our midst the inspiration of the veteran rosearian Dr. Mills. We should have in our city a rose garden larger and more beautiful than that which the city of Syracuse, New York, has built and dedicated to Dr. Mills. A committee composed of Dr. Mills, Mr. J. W. Estes, and Mr. Ralph Smedley are investigating various possible locations for such a rose garden and will be ready to report at the next meeting.

"We now have 36 members of the American Rose Society in Santa Ana. Many more have signified their intention of joining the society at once. Come to the meeting next Friday evening and get your name on the list of charter members of the organization."

Miss Hazel Granvill, pastor of the Four Square Gospel church here, has announced that she has received official documents changing the name of the tabernacle to the Four Square Gospel Lighthouse, the necessary sanction having been obtained from the state.

Such interest has been evidenced in the revival meetings conducted this week at the lighthouse by Evangelist Hardy W. Mitchell, that consideration is being given to the advisability of continuing them for another week or two at the conclusion of the series of meetings scheduled for this week.

Some of the leaders among the 800 students at Los Angeles Temple have been assisting here, and arrangements are being made to have new talent each night. A visit by the temple silver band also is anticipated.

In discussing "The Holy Spirit" last night, the evangelist declared the great need of the church today to be spirit-filled Christians, the ministry as well as the laymen.

"The congregation so spirit-filled would manifest life and activity, and its members would be set to work doing something for God and humanity," said Evangelist Mitchell. "It could not stand still and do nothing. There are too many members of all denominations who claim to possess religion who are not possessors of true religion. A Christian should be known by his fruits, and these should be manifested in his every day life."

CALDWELL LIKES YANKEES

In dealing with the case of Bruce Caldwell, Yale football, baseball and basketball star, the New York Yankees let it be known that they are ready and willing to pay large sums to Caldwell if he would sign a contract.

It might be necessary to mention that the Yankees are engaged primarily in the baseball business, that they recently made a new record in winning the American League championship and in knocking off the Pittsburgh Pirates in four straight games in what is known as the fall classic.

As it has been necessary to point out that the main business now at least, of Col. Ruppert, owner of the Yankees, is the manufacture of championship baseball teams, he wouldn't want to put out this money for the making of a baseball team that had a Yale basketball or football star, because those Yale fans aren't such customers, unless he also happens to be a baseball star.

Caldwell not only is said to be a baseball star, but one of the best turned out in years, as good as Mac Aldrich, who turned down a half dozen offers several years ago. Like Caldwell, he was an infielder and he had the stands full of scouts every afternoon Yale played.

But Aldrich couldn't see professional baseball. He had some influential friends playing around the stock market and he went into business with them. Caldwell is a poor boy and he has to work, and therein may be the difference for the Yankees.

Anyway, they say Caldwell can play baseball, and he has had some staggering offers made him.

ABOUT GRID CAREER

Before Caldwell became an out-and-out non-amateur pro, the moguls of professional football forgot some of the things they had said about ethics.

Caldwell has not turned professional at Yale. Princeton and Harvard merely had said that he played one game as a freshman at Brown and that as far as his future at Yale was concerned he could continue to play class baseball and basketball.

There were some offers made to have him play pro football but Tim Mara, owner of the New York Giants, refused to be a party to any such intrigue.

"Professional football," said Mr. Mara, "will have nothing to do with Mr. Caldwell until he gets his diploma at New Haven." Perhaps Big Bill Edwards also said that. And Mr. Pyle and Mr. "Red" Grange. At any rate, Caldwell did not go in for the pro racket last fall when he was disqualified.

Now it is understood Mr. Caldwell wants to play pro football at least two seasons. He is sure to be given a chance.

Which brings up the policy of the baseball owners to lay off the boys until they get through school. "They might repudiate the contracts if they get too smart," some say, "as it has been done in the past."

CLASS C DECATHLON MARKS SHATTERED RUTHLESSLY AS JAMES HALL IS VICTORIOUS

All of last year's records in the Class C division of the decathlon events at Santa Ana high school, except three established by Solon Beall, went into the ash can, discarded for new marks made by the midgut athlete, according to data compiled by Walter Scott, physical education supervisor. James Hall, who captained both the Class C football and basketball teams during the past season, was easily the highest point scorer in the midgut division.

Hall's total of 5274 points qualified him seventh highest in the school, in fact. He was the only "C" athlete to be ranked on the list of the "Big 10."

New records were placed on the books this year in all of the decathlon events except the football punt, shot put and broad jump which are held by Beall on last year's marks.

Those in the Class C division who were highest were James Hall with 5274, Asa Herren 5220, Bob Foster 5312, Newell Vandermast 5122, Byron Chase 5142, Veri Underwood 4594, Caldwell Oglesby 4405, Eugene Wood 4400, Woodrow Barnett 4216, and Burdette Heiny 4155.

Results of the leaders:

Football punt—Barnett won; Gilbert Foster, Oglesby tied for second. Distance: 41 yards.

Football pass for accuracy—Thir team tied with perfect scores.

Basketball throw—Barnett won, Kingsley second, Wood, Smith and Williams tied for third. Score: 20 times.

Shot put—Foster won, Herren and Hall tied for second.

100 yard dash—Herren won, Higashi second, Bizby third. Time: 11.1 seconds.

High jump—Chase won, Frace second, Smith third. Height: 5 feet, 6 inches.

Broad jump—Foster won, Hall second, Herren third. Distance: 16 feet, 4 inches.

Baseball throw—Hall and Foster tied for first; Herren, Schmidt, Wood and Price tied for second.

Full-up—Hall won, Oglesby, Caldwell, Williams, Heiny and Burdette tied for second.

55-yard swim—Vandermast and Wilson tied for first, Underwood third. Time: 15.6 seconds.

Push-up—Chase won, Hall second and Herren third. Score: 54 times.

SANTA ANA COLLEGE FEARFUL OF DEFEAT IN FIRST TRACK MEET OF SEASON TOMORROW

A dark shadow was hanging over the Santa Ana junior college track squad today. On the eve of the first meet of the Junior College conference season, the Santa Ana cinderpath athletes, coached by Bill Cook, appear to be facing defeat at the hands of Pasadena junior college tomorrow afternoon on Poly field because of the prowess of one dusky Pirate entry, "Shik" Stocks.

Stocks is conceded to be good to take about 20 or 25 points in the impending dual meet.

The Santa Ana team is reasonably certain of some of the first places but Cook fears his squad will not have sufficient strength in second and third place winners to overtake the Pasadena advantage.

To one of the Santa Ana athletes, "Red" Guyer, star sprinter, the dusky Stocks will probably have to bow. Guyer is figured to be good for first in both the 100 yard dash and the 220 sprint. Two other first places are being doped out for Santa Ana. Roscoe Bradberry expected to take first in the 400 and Bob Jacques may come first in the high jump.

"Pete" Twist should place in the hurdles and he may out race Stocks who is the favorite. Russell Hind is rated to place in the sprints and the broad jump. Blanchard Beatty will contribute to the Santa Ana total with points in the javelin. Mark Martin will be Santa Ana's entry in the quarter mile. The distance events are weak for Santa Ana with only one man, John Vance, entered in the mile.

Although Mart Martin, Vernon heavyweight, opened a bad cut over the left eye of Harry Beum, Los Angeles, in the second round of the main event at the Ellis Delhi "barn" last night, Beum piled up enough points by his aggressive style and fast infighting to win the verdict of Referee Lloyd Neal and both of the judges. It was a first class scrap.

Martin, who had considerable touting before the bout, didn't show much except a willingness to take things as easy as possible without getting hurt. While he was preventing himself from being knocked out, Beum bored in and took both the first and second rounds before Martin hardly knew what it was all about. The third round was even and the fourth round was slightly in favor of Beum. The decision was popular and the "barn" management promised to put Beum on the card for next Wednesday night. They fought at 195 pounds, and looked it.

The semi-windup, between Jimmy Rivers, of Fullerton, and Art Palmer, of Los Angeles, went to Palmer, although it could have been called either way without doing an injustice. Under the amateur rules, which prevail at Delhi, the judges are required to pick the winner, however. The boys, fighting at 150 pounds, were fast and worked hard. Rivers, who looked the heavier than Palmer, should be entitled to a rematch.

Hal Cox, rugged Los Angeles Athletic club fighter, won a decision from Tony Ross of Anaheim, and the fight was just about as close as the semi-windup. Ross was in much better condition than he was last week when he won the verdict.

The flashiest performance was submitted by Jack Gilbert, 135-pound San Bernardino fighter, who now has three victories to his credit under the auspices of the Ellis promotions. He mauled Al Hicks, Vernon colored fighter, to the floor in the first round although it looked like Hicks could have continued if he had not chose to retire. They clashed at 135 pounds.

Les Loftus, Vernon negro, had John Tungaray, of San Juan Capistrano in such a bad way in the second round of their 135-pound bout that the Capistrano boy's seconds threw in the towel. Tungaray had plenty of ambition and apparent fortitude but he lacked sufficient polish to stand off his dusky foe.

In the curtain-raiser, Johnny Hernandez, of Anaheim, had little trouble winning from George Miller of Vernon. It looked like Miller's first fight.

BEAVER REGULARS TO LEAVE PORTLAND SATURDAY NIGHT; BATTERY MEN KEEP WORKING

Led by Roy Mack, traveling secretary, a squad of regulars from the Portland Pacific Coast league baseball club will board a southbound train in Portland Saturday night and shove off for their training camp at the Orange County Fair grounds.

Tom L. Turner, president and principal stockholder in the Oregon entry, may decide to accompany his hirelings here, it was learned.

Just how many Beavers will come to Santa Ana on the Portland special is unknown but the train probably will bear half a dozen of the swatsmiths who are expected to club the Webfooters high up in the standings.

The regulars, infielders and outfielders, are under orders to report to Manager Ernie Johnson at St. Ann's Inn next Monday morning in time to take part in practice that day.

FRANK GETTY

Men's craving for speed warrants attention to the tests conducted this week on Daytona Beach, where the fastest things on wheels are being raced in a quest for new world records.

It will be less than daylight hours, and the world's speediest motor cars will be tearing down the smooth sand in well-nigh unbelievable times.

The race, with one exception, will be against time rather than against cars, for it is sufficiently dangerous to have one automobile careening along a straightaway at three miles a minute without introducing one or more others into the picture.

When these 500 mile per hour babies get started, everyone wants to keep a long way away. It frequently happens that the driver loses consciousness because of the dizzy pace, which makes it risky for him as well as for anyone else in the vicinity.

The present world's automobile speed record, it will be recalled, is held by Major M. O. D. Segrave, who traveled 202.79 miles per hour to establish it. The major is an Englishman, so this is one speed record not held by the United States, and part of the idea of this week's show at Daytona Beach is to try to bring the record back to this country.

Frank Lockhart and J. M. White are the American entrants. The former will pilot a small car, designed for minimum wind resistance. It has a high cylinder turnover and theoretically is capable of 210 miles per hour.

White's car is a fearsome affair, weight 5,000 pounds, equipped with three airplane motors. One of these motors is in front of the driver's seat and two are side by side in the rear.

While each of the motors has a rated maximum of slightly less than 800 horsepower, White has tuned them up to more than 3,000 revolutions per minute without load.

Should one of the Americans succeed in breaking Major Segrave's record, there will be present an English driver, prepared to save the mark for England.

Captain Malcolm Campbell of London has entered his Bluebird, fitted with a Napier aero motor capable of delivering something like 1,000 horsepower. The Bluebird is a stream line racer, designed to overcome the effects of unfavorable aerostatic conditions when proceeding at high speed.

Theoretically, all these cars can do better than 202.79 miles per hour, but things have a way of happening to high-powered racing automobiles.

The time trials will be held over a nine-mile stretch, permitting four miles for the cars to get going, one mile to run over the electrically timed course. The remaining four miles are required to stop the darn things.

STILL FAST

Charley Paddock can still run—fast. The old-timer celebrated his return to competition at the Coliseum Saturday by picking up five yards on Charley Borah on the last 110-yard lap of a relay race and anybody who can pick up anything on the Trojan flash isn't through as a high class sprinter—not by a jugful.

Indian Favorite For Tune-Up Run

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 23.—Marathon runners in training at Ascot speedway for C. C. Pyle's trans-continental foot race from Los Angeles to New York in March, are puzzling over the problem of keeping Chief Quomawahu, Hopi Indian, from winning the 25-mile training run Sunday.

The Arizona Indian won the 15-mile event last Sunday and declares he ought to win this longer event as it is his favorite distance.

Jack Dempsey Is Referee Of Bout

JOCKEY PHILPOT GETS MOUNT ON PENNANT QUEEN

TIJUANA RACE TRACK, Mex., Feb. 22.—His contract just sold to Mrs. Louise Vlau, New York sportswoman who is racing a formidable string of stake horses here, Jockey Hurst Philpot, the leading rider of the Tijuana meeting, will be given the mount on Pennant Queen, the sensational three-year-old filly, in the annual renewal of the rich Tijuana Oaks Sunday, Feb. 24.

The Oaks is a gallop of one mile and is exclusively for three-year-old fillies. The hopes of Mrs. Vlau to have her colors carried to victory in the Oaks repose in Pennant Queen. So well did she think of this filly's chances that she did not hesitate to purchase Philpot's contract from H. D. Brown for $25,000. She said she realized that with Philpot aboard, Pennant Queen should turn in a sparkling performance in the Oaks.

Formidable as seems Pennant Queen, the only horse to whip Anita Peabody, the champion two-year-old of 1927, it appears that if she takes victory in the Oaks, it will not be without a battle.

All candidates for this classic have been racing extremely well. Buckeye Belle, the clever trick from the Mira Monte Stock Farm, is right at top form.

Shasta Flapper running for Marvin Allen, gives every hint that she will carry her established speed over a route. Shasta Sand will bear the silks of Alexander Pantanos. It was his Shasta Bullet who was the winner of the Speed Handicap.

MODEL SCHOOL ANALYZED BY J. A. CRANSTON

J. A. Cranston, superintendent of Santa Ana's schools, issued today the following analysis of the 1928 model school, in which the changes taking place in the educational world are explained.

"It is characteristically American to be 'up-to-date,' whether in dress, deportment or in our economic progress.

"In our personal affairs we want the latest garb; we want to ride in the newest motor car; we want to read the freshest book, see the most recent play.

"In our business, too, the craving is for novelty, newness, freshness by alteration of style; automobile manufacturers, by making a few minor changes and producing a new model car.

"In old world eyes this American characteristic seems like a form of extravagance—changing merely for the sake of change and not because of substance. Yet this trait goes deeper—it is a symptom of our national pulsation of progress. It is the same spirit that causes a manufacturer to scrap a gigantic plant to build a new one for greater efficiency; a landlord to tear down a skyscraper to make room for a larger and better building; a community to raise acres of structures to make way for a park.

"In education, too, engineering and thought have kept pace with this progress, and yet education is neither showy nor clamorous; it inspires no personal crusaders in its behalf; it is only a modest contender for public favor.

"The new in education has brought the Junior High School organization, the Platoon school, the Individual Instruction project, the Pre-vocational and Manual Arts schools. It has likewise shown itself in concern for health, resulting in motivated play activities, medical inspection, dental clinics, open-air schools, investigations and adjustments for proper heating and ventilating of schools, the determination of proper seating and proper room arrangements in consideration of light and other health influences. It is in evidence in its concern for cultural subjects, wherein art has gained a new place in the well-organized curriculum. The subject has been made practical in that it affords an opportunity for creative expression and places the pupil in greater harmony with life's objective and environment. The same is true of music and similar subjects. It has emphasized the laboratory method of instruction and the important place of our sciences in the scheme of education. To this entire program has been added a wealth of material for motivating the basic 'Three R's.' "These conditions reflected in a happy child life, a new community atmosphere and a wholesome public interest and participation in all matters educational, represent an evolving school system that reaches for its fullest expression in the '1928 Model school.'

HAMMOND CLUB TO SEE 'WILD DUCK'

HOW TO FIGHT EXCESS FAT

These are hard ways, the starvation, but fewer and fewer employ them. There is a pleasant way, modern and scientific, which combats no cause. A vast number of people now use it. And the slender figures now seen everywhere are largely due to that.

That method is embodied in Marmola prescription tablets. People have used them for 20 years—millions of boxes of them. And everybody, in almost every class, sees the change. Now beauty, new health, new vitality.

Each box of Marmola contains the formula, also the scientific reasons for results. So users have no fear of harm. Learn the facts about Marmola, because of the good it has done. Ask your druggist—now—for a $1 box with the book. Then decide. Adv.

Goutre Not a Disease

Milwaukee Doctor Makes Remarkable Discovery

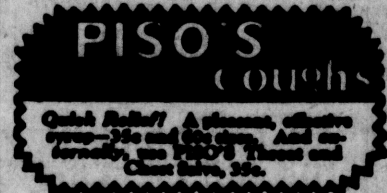

Milwaukee, Wis.—It has been brought to light by scientific research that goutre is not a disease and is not to be treated as such. Dr. A. A. Rock, Dept. 450, Box 737, Milwaukee, Wis., a prominent goutre specialist for over 14 years, has perfected a different method of treatment for his patients that has proved remarkably successful. This same method is now being used for a home treatment of goutre cases all over the country, with astonishing results. The doctor states that goutre is a condition which grows worse with neglect and recommends immediate attention no matter how small the growth may appear. He strongly opposes needless operations. Dr. Rock is the author of a book that tells in a simple way about treating goutre at home. He has published this book at his own expense and will send a copy free to anyone interested. Write him today. Adv.

ORANGE WOMAN,
92, MAKES 71
SCRAP BOOKS

ORANGE, Feb. 23.—Mrs. L. Ainsworth, nearly 92 years of age, is making a scrap book which will be number 71 in a series of books which have chronicled the lives of the presidents and the happenings of the nation from clippings from newspapers published during the past 60 years. Mrs. Ainsworth lives at 414 East Chapman avenue.

Fourteen of Mrs. Ainsworth's books are now being catalogued at the state library at Sacramento. These are the newspaper records of the World war and letters printed in the papers from the soldiers from this vicinity. The latter books contain on an average 150 letters and 75 pictures of World war veterans.

The books of the war are 10 by 11 and the 14 presented to the state library weighed 83 pounds. In a letter to Mrs. Ainsworth, the state librarian said, "You have done something that has never been done before, kept a record of a great war through clipping the news each day."

In making these books, Mrs. Ainsworth used five daily papers from which she clipped every night. Other books she has made contain records of the lives of many of the presidents, great inventions, the progress of the nation and a complete record of the sinking of the Titanic.

One of the most interesting of the books is made up of miscellaneous clippings and is illustrated with wood cuts. Another book is devoted to a family record of newspaper clippings and has accounts both printed and typewritten of the wedding journey of their compiler, when in company with her husband she crossed the plains in a covered wagon in 1854, the first of eight trips that she made by this means of travel.

Mrs. Ainsworth is well known in the county and has lived in Orange for the past 27 years, where her sons, Frank L. Ainsworth and Mr. O. Ainsworth, have banking interests. The woman who has donated to history this interesting collection of books came to California with the doctor's verdict that she would not live to arrive here and refuted this verdict by living 74 years beyond the time he allotted her. She has 34 descendants, all living in California.

Her greatest regret at the present time is her failing eyesight that renders the making of her last book more difficult than the others. "I am so glad that I have learned so much poetry," she said. "At night when I can't sleep or when I have nothing else to do, I can say to myself all the beautiful thoughts that someone else has put into rhymes."

Besides keeping a newspaper record of the war, Mrs. Ainsworth was responsible for the change of the name of the American boys in the war and "Banks." An editorial in a Los Angeles newspaper recently gave her credit for this change, which she says she instituted by writing to various papers and officials at Washington.

15 ENROLLED
IN NEW NIGHT
SCHOOL CLASS

ORANGE, Feb. 23.—The new night classes organized met at the Orange union high school last night. Fifteen pupils were enrolled. Miss Hannah Neeser, Spanish teacher, is teaching the classes. Most of the members are seeking to read and write English.

Miss Gelsmina M. Brown, one of the teachers interested in the formation of the classes, took several of the Spanish pupils in the advanced classes of the day school with her recently to Pomona college, where they heard Dr. Andres Osumi, director general of public education for the state of Monterey, Mexico.

Miss Brown states that in his talk, Osumi declared that compulsory education was not needed in Mexico as the people are eager to learn that they voluntarily contribute toward the building of schools. There is a rising tide of learning in Mexico, says Miss Brown, that is reflected in the desire for learning of English in the Mexican population here.

The bill which will send all gold mothers and "unmarried" of American soldiers of late war to France to visit graves of their soldier sons husbands at government expense is said to have passed through military affairs committee of House more rapidly and with opposition than practically other bill ever presented them.

BUT—
Politicians like any appeal to motherhood sentiment. It's easy, though, that they can see beauty of letting a mother die at her son's grave but can't see the same beauty in sparing the son of another mother. Sheppard-Towner law, for which organized women fought for, is in danger of being altered by congressmen and senators to lapse into a state of near inaction. This law you know already saved thousands of infants and mothers, and that many die if the funds are not coming for a new period.

HICKMAN JURY
Expected at first thought that man's defense would make possible attempt to get a jury of women on the jury. She would look at Mrs. Evman's drawn and fear-frenzied face, think, "what if it were son?" and be unable to send him to the gallows.

TWO SIDES
That first reasoning was not sound. The defense is to be making no special appeal to seat women. Perhaps know, too, that mothers will be horrified dark eyes of Lillian Parker, see her crushed and, and know what they could demand of anyone who so much as touch her little girl. Parents are generally more manly when small child is concerned than when the child is a small girl especially in this concern.

When Clowny stopped his bouncing trick, he said, "That almost made me sick. 'Twas lots of fun, but now I am as dizzy as can be." He quickly sat down on the ground, which seemed to jump and move around. There was a haze and funniness to all that he could see.

The other Tines also stopped, and on the ground they shortly flopped. The bouncing made them wobbly, too, and they had had enough. "I guess we'd better rest a while," said Clowny, with a sickly smile. "I'm all tired out from having fun. It's made me pant and puff."

He put his head in Clowny's lap and then they all took quite a nap. When they woke up the dizziness was gone, and they could stand. Said Coppy, "Well, I'm full of cheer. And now, where shall we go from here?" "Why, no place," answered Carpy. "Let's stay here in Rubber Land." "Say, that's a very brilliant

AVOID DIZZY SPELLS

Never well. Always tired and fagged out. Beauty tossed away by neglect. To be beautiful and to keep youth the system must be free from poisonous backwash of constipation which often causes dizzy spells. For 20 years, Dr. F. M. Edwards gave his patients, in place of calomel, a compound of vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. Known by their olive color. They free the system of poisons that ravage health, snuffing beauty.
You need never have a yellow complexion, dull eyes, coated tongue, throbbing headaches—all signs that your bowels are clogged, liver is torpid. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly. They act smoothly and without gripping. How much better you'll feel and look! Everywhere wise men and women know the value of good health take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. Weak Hearts
Caused By Worry

By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

The American heart! That's the thing that puzzles the health dispensers now. We have a better chance of living our full three score years and ten than our grandfathers—if our hearts hold out.

But our hearts aren't holding out, that's the trouble. And it is becoming the great American mystery. Why?

The specialist marks you over with blue chalk like a game of hopscotch, listens, shakes his head, and remarks sternly, "You have been running up all the hills on high. Take it easy, shift your gears, and don't work so hard."

But nobody with fixed habits ever listens to him, and by the time we need heart specialists we usually have fixed habits. But it is bad business. We must listen and we must shift gears or the old bus is going to the scrap heap.

All bad hearts are not caused by over work, or by burning the candle at both ends. The chief contributing cause of nerve and consequent heart trouble is worry. The old adage "Work doesn't kill but worry will" was never as true as in the year of Our Lord 1928. We worry more every month. We can't stop. It is a disease as progressive as tuberculosis.

A woman worried because she thought she had a malignant growth. It looked indeed as though she had. At last an operation proved it to be only a small tumor and she recovered her health completely. Did she stop worrying? It wasn't a month until she was worrying herself to death, literally, over a rug with a hole eaten in it by radio acid!

A man faced ruin. He had taken a long chance and missed. For a while it looked as though his creditors could make things very unpleasant. Friends helped—he came out clean. With a new start and a sunny future ahead.

So, down the streets of Rubber Land paraded quite a happy band. All of a sudden, someone said, "Hello there, tiny tots. Of good times you shall have your fling. I rule this town, 'cause I'm the king. If you are here to see the sights, I'll surely show you lots." "Oh, thank you," shouted Scouty. "Gee, you make us happy as can be. We wish we had some playmates who could play with us a while." And then the rubber king said, "Here, I have some balloons to bring you cheer. Just blow them up and you will see a sight to make you smile."

(The Tinymites get a big surprise in the next story.)

HEALTHY FERNS

Never keep ferns in glazed earth-ware. They should be raised from the bottom of their pots by putting pebbles or broken crockery under the dirt. Give them a shower bath once a week. Never let them stand in a dish of water.

RUBBER SHEETS

When using rubber sheeting on invalids' or babies' beds, sew bandings of unbleached muslin down each side wide enough to tuck clear under the mattress.

EAT THE THEATER

YOST BROADWAY THEATER

"The Fourflusher," current offering at the Yost Broadway, with Marian Nixon and George Lewis, is unusually entertaining. It is a rare combination of dramatic story and comedy.

Miss Nixon is pretty and enacts her role with ease, while Lewis is very effective in his role, playing with the same inescapable charm which made him so popular in "The Collegians."

It is about a young shoe clerk whose rival for the hand of the girl is the son of his employer. These are played by Lewis, Miss Nixon and Eddie Phillips. Of course, the young man gets a break when the town banker accidentally loans him $10,000. But that isn't the end, it's only the beginning and the picture carries this out to a surprising and thrilling denouement.

WEST END THEATER

Flying over the heads of Douglas Fairbanks Jr., Director Richard Rosson, and others, a broken section of automobile rim thrown from the wheel of a racing car traveling more than 90 miles an hour imperiled many lives during the filming of race scenes for "Dead Man's Curve," current attraction at the West End theater.

Close shots of a speeding car were filmed, and as the car tore by the cameras it cast a rim, which broke into pieces that flew over the heads of the director and his staff of cameramen and actors.

ORANA PLAYERS

Herbert M. Shelley, favorite of many patrons of the Orana Players, is seen this week in a natural role. His part in "The Black Sheep" is that of a romantic young man who is badly smitten with love. The leads in the play are carried by C. William Booth and Miss Maryeda Green.

Walker yesterday, in the latest production starring the international and incomparable actor, Emil Jannings, in "The Last Command."

A great warrior, mighty in power, beloved by his men; a traitor and a girl befriended by him; revolution, poverty; that in brief is the bare outline of Emil Jannings' second American made production, which captured the audience yesterday at the Main street theater.

"The Last Command" is a worthy successor to Jannings' actor could do.

two previous productions in which he appeared before the American film going public in "Variety" and "The Way of All Flesh." Jannings does an unbelievably splendid characterization of a Russian general and is then torn from his riches and might by the revolutionists.

A great actor is this Jannings and a great picture has been given him in "The Last Command." He makes the most of the role and carries out the theme of the dramatic story as no other living actor could do.
